APPEAL OF CITATION # P40148

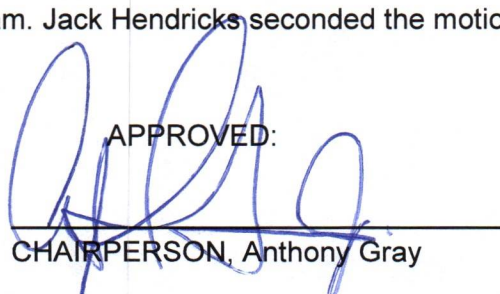

Mr. Lay came to the board to appeal a citation he received for handicapped area/ramp. He was parked in a handicapped spot with no permit displayed. Mr. Lay stated he did have a permit displayed. He had it laying on his dash on the passenger side. He said he lays it there so officers walking down the sidewalks can see it. He asked if it has to be hanging? He said he just usually leaves it there so he doesn't start driving and forget to remove it. He said he don't want that to be an impairment when he drives. He showed the board a picture of his permit in the window. The board also seen the officer's pictures too.

Anthony Gray made a motion to dismiss the citation, since Mr. Lay does have a permit. The motion was seconded by Jack Hendricks and the board unanimously approved.

ADJOURN:

Jack Hendricks made a motion to adjourn at 9:40 am. Jack Hendricks seconded the motion and the board unanimously approved.
