APPEAL OF CITATION #P42062

Alice Miller came before the board to appeal a parking ticket that she received for no permit hanging. She does have a permit, she just forgot to move it to the other car. She said she just forgot. She thinks that if they come and show proof of permit that no fee should be imposed.

Anthony Gray made a motion to dismiss the citation, since this is her first appeal. He explained to her the importance of having one hanging. The motion was seconded by Jack Hendricks and the board unanimously approved.

APPEAL OF CITATION #P42142

Keisha Welch came before the board to appeal a parking ticket that she received for no permit hanging. She does have a permit, it was just hanging backwards. She said she just hung it up wrong. Officer Wesley said at that time they was ticketing people for non-payment also, so she said if the officer had recognized it being our permit they may have thought it was one that hadn't paid.

Anthony Gray made a motion to dismiss the citation. He explained to her the importance of having one hanging. The motion was seconded by Jack Hendricks and the board unanimously approved.

ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW #P42325

Nina gave her report on what she had on this ticket so far. She has located the registered owner but he had sold it, but it was never registered to new owner.

Anthony Gray made a motion to have a continuance on this to try to get ahold of the owner. The motion was seconded by Jack Hendricks and the board unanimously approved.

ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW #P42344

Tiffany Luttrell explained this appeal went to Anthony Gray and not to me. As soon as we noticed the issue it was too late to send a letter so it was added as an administrative review. Anthony Gray explained that this was a cancer patient trying to go in the courthouse and speak to his wife. At the time there was construction from the street scape plans that has blocked the entrance to the courthouse. He parked in the wrong area.

Anthony Gray made a motion to dismiss. The motion was seconded by Roger Hartner and the board unanimously approved.

ADJOURN:

Roger Hartner made a motion to adjourn at 9:48 am. Jack Hendricks seconded the motion and the board unanimously approved.
